

THE DAILY CHRONICLE

VOL. II.—No. 199.

PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 1820.

CHARLES ALEXANDER, PUBLISHER, NO. 112 CHESTNUT STREET, OPPOSITE TO THE POST-OFFICE.—TERMS $8 PER ANNUM, PAYABLE HALF YEARLY IN ADVANCE.

Whole Number 199.

ENGLISH FASHIONABLES.
NEW copies of the above novel, at 62-1-2 cents per copy, for sale by
S. HART & SON,
68 South Third street.

Captain Hall's Travels.

RAVELS in North America, in the years
1812 and 13, by Capt. Hall, of the Royal Navy, now to be sold by J. GRIGG, No. 5 North Front street.

The Southern Review, No. VII.

JUST received, and for sale by E. LITTELL,
J. & BROTHER, No. 435 Chestnut street, the South
Front street.

Hughes' Catena—Hoffman's Legal Outlines—
The Fine Arts—Education in Germany—Abbot's Letters from Cuba—Cleopatra Republics—Travels in Chi-
ca-De-Dyngus—Heber's New Testament—
The Southern Review will be published on the 1st of October, May, August and November. Price one dollar per annum.

SALE.
THYMESERY STORE, Insider of Twelfth and Long WATER APPARATUS, In-
July 18-19.

useful Knowledge,
of the History of Greece, etc. by E. H. HUBBARD, etc., opposite the U. S. Bank.

NIAGARA.
Views of Niagara, in sets of just published and for sale by J. M. STEWART,
125 Chestnut street.

PRINTS.
A style of Taunton dark dark rich cambric do. do.
do. do.
coloured do. do.
very desirable style of lyc
KEEF, BROWN & CO.
No. 16 South Front street.

WOOL CARDS. and wool Cards, for sale
M. & G. R. JUSTICE,
No. 149 Market street.

CHECKS. and bindings for sale, by
J. MONTGOMERY, No. 11
107 Chestnut street; opposite the U. S. Bank.

SAVINGS. real & Mackenzie's new prints, among which are Henry J. Felton, Henry Simpson, General Jackson, etc. etc. New Haven, Conn. draws and New York. For sale as above, among Seasons, &c. &c.

GH GLASS.
Subscribers, in whole and by various sizes, while price, to close a consign-NORTH & WARREN.

Plaid Cloaks.
Plaid Cloaks—by the
the cellar under the street
Aug. 13-14.

KNOWLEDGE.
1. containing the Momentum of new prints, among which are
R. H. HOBSON,
etc., opposite U. S. Bank.

HOGG & CO.
INTERS.
33 OF WOOD, & C.
33 ARCADE.

HECKS, &c.
ment of Wm. M. Evans' & E. H. B. Checks on the different any pattern required, and any size.

EL M. STEWART,
No. 125 Chestnut street.

ENGRAVINGS.
Just received by NEAL & MACKENZIE,
and a number of new prints, among which are
the Rev. Henry J. Felton, Henry Simpson, General Jackson, etc. etc. New Haven, Conn. draws and
New York. For sale as above, among
Seasons, &c. &c.

PICTURES.
and new prints, among which are Henry J. Felton, Henry Simpson, General Jackson, etc. etc. New Haven, Conn. draws and
New York. For sale as above, among
Seasons, &c. &c.

PITTSBURGH GLASS.
For SALE, by the Subscribers, in whole and half boxes, a quantity of various sizes, which will be sold at the lowest cash price, to close a consignment. Aug. 7-14.

NORTH & WARRIN.
Gamblet and Plaid Cloaks—
20 A few still remaining in the cellar under 215 Market
Aug. 13-14.

FOR SALE.
A few Gamblet and Plaid Cloaks—
Aug. 13-14.

LIBRARY OF ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE.
The First Part of vol. I. containing the Momentum—described described from living subjects, received and for sale by H. H. ROBSON,
No. 147 Chestnut street, opposite the U. S. Bank.

NIAGARA.
KENNEDY & LUCAS,
and R. H. HOBSON, street, the Views of the most singular views of Robert Burns' Monument, near the bridge, by W. Strickland, taken July 11-12.

HECKS. to the Estate of WAL-TON, are required to have claims against the same, to receive and for sale by J. P. NORRIS, Jr.,
114 South Front street.

REMOV.
TOWAR & HOGAN,
225 Market street.

ESSAY ON GRAMMAR.
FOR SALE, at the ARCADE, West Avenue,
P. W. HARRISON HALL.

BLUETTE.
ACTURES.
STAND 11 South Third Street, the Views of the most singular views of Robert Burns' Monument, near the bridge, by W. Strickland, taken
Aug. 12-13.

ND LOST.
WARD of five dollars given to any person who will give the name of the Party which will recover a sum of four thousand dollars at the rising time of
Aug. 13-14.

CAN.
SOTTHEE.
CORN AND GRASS MANUFACTURE, for sale by
G. H. JUSTICE,
No. 149 Market street.

IN A Novel

NOTICE.
ALL persons indebted to the Estate of WAL-TON, Anderson, deceased, are requested to make payment, and those having claims against the same, to present them for settlement, to J. P. MORRIS, Jr.,
Administrator, No. 114 South Fourth street.

JUST PUBLISHED.
AD FOR SALE, by THOMAS DESILVER
No. 247 Market street, Retail at 20c.
Price 10-12.

BROWN, & CO.
50 South Front street.

HACKLES.

THE subscribers have just received one case of Price & Jones' Hackles, consisting of Hemp, Kgs. Middle and Fine China,
G. M. & G. R. JUSTICE,
No. 149 Market street.

Aug. 10-11.

Captain Hall's Travels.

RAVELS in North America, in the years
1812 and 13, by Capt. Hall, of the Royal
Navy, now to be sold by J. GRIGG, No. 5 North Front street.

The Southern Review, No. VII.

JUST received, and for sale by E. LITTELL,
J. & BROTHER, No. 435 Chestnut street, the South
Front street.

Hughes' Catena—Hoffman's Legal Outlines—
The Fine Arts—Education in Germany—Abbot's Letters from Cuba—Cleopatra Republics—Travels in Chi-
ca-De-Dyngus—Heber's New Testament—
The Southern Review will be published on the 1st of October, May, August and November. Price
one dollar per annum.

Aug. 10-11.

NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of ALEX-ANDER H. ROBINSON, late of New York, Uncle Master, managed, will make payment, and those having claims against said estate, will present them for setlement, duly attested, to JOHN R. COX, Administrator,
8. W. corner of Third and Spruce streets.

Aug. 10-11.

COTTON AND WOOL CARDS.

A LARGE assortment of WHITEMORE'S,
SMITH'S, SARGENT'S, EARL'S & JONES'
AND OTHER COTTON CARDS, constantly on hand, and for sale by G. M. & G. R. JUSTICE, at their Handweaving and Carding Mill, 149 Market street.

Aug. 10-11.

C. G. CHILDREN.

HAS removed to No. 185 CHESTNUT STREET, opposite the State House.

ENGRAVING executed in all its branches.

Aug. 10-11.

NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of JO-SEPH H. ROBINSON, late of Donougher Township, County of Philadelphia, deceased, are requested to make payment, and those having claims against said estate, will be paid, to JOHN T. STOCKERT, Administrator, July 22-23.

JOHN MCGILL, TAILOR,

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public that he still occupies the above shop at his old established stand, No. 27 South Third street, where he has been busily engaged, enlarged, by Francis William Sanders, Esq. of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister at Law, royal blue.

Aug. 10-11.

AMERICAN PRINTS.

JUST received, comprising a choice 400 collection, and for sale by
S. HART & SON,

68 South Third street.

Aug. 10-11.

THOMAS DESILVER, JR.

BOOKSELLER AND STATIONER, No. 247 Market street, opposite the State House, and engraving, printing, binding and bookbinding, neatly executed.

Aug. 10-11.

STOUT WOOLLEN KERSEYS.

HACKER, BROWN & CO., No. 45 South Front street, Agents for the sale of the Boston and Canton Companies' fine drab and soft Kerseys, now offer them at a lower price than ever before, and particularly invite the attention of purchasers to the merit of these articles.

Aug. 10-11.

FALLS OF NIAGARA.

Views of the Falls of Niagara, in sets of five, single Views, just published and for sale by SAMUEL M. STEWART,
125 Chestnut street.

Aug. 10-11.

AMERICAN PRINTS.

CONSTANTLY for sale, new and desirable patterns. These superior goods are now offered at a very low price.

HACKER, BROWN & CO.,
No. 45 South Front street.

Aug. 10-11.

PETERS' REPORTS.

JUST received and for sale by E. H. SMALL, and engaged in 1819-1820, by J. G. RICHARDSON, M.D., January term, 1820, by Richard Peters, Counsellor at Law, and Reporter of the Decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States, vol. 2.

Aug. 10-11.

TO APOTHECARIES.

FOR SALE, an old established Retail Apothecary Store, in a central part of the city, where with attention, a considerable retail, as well as wholesale business may be done.

This establishment is well calculated for a young man about to commence the business, as the stock will be sold low, and the articles being fresh, and of the first quality. Inquire at this office.

Aug. 10-11.

ENGRAVINGS.

JUST received by NEAL & MACKENZIE,
and a number of new prints, among which are
the Rev. Henry J. Felton, Henry Simpson, General Jackson, etc. etc. New Haven, Conn. draws and
New York. For sale as above, among
Seasons, &c. &c.

Aug. 10-11.

PICTURES.

CONSTANTLY for sale, new and desirable
patterns. These superior goods are now offered at a very low price.

HACKER, BROWN & CO.,
No. 45 South Front street.

Aug. 10-11.

ADVERTISEMENT.

BULKELEY'S, 149 Chestnut street, have constantly on hand a complete assortment of Castor Oil, Drapery, Hats, etc.

Philadelphia, New York and London fashions.

Also, men's Travelling, Fishing, Forage and dress CAPS,
youths' boys' and children's fancy Caps, ladies' UMBRELLAS, Umbrellas, Stocks, Gloves, &c. &c.

Aug. 10-11.

BLANK BOOKS.

FOR SALE, an old established RETAIL Apo-

thecary Store, in a central part of the city, where
with attention, a considerable retail, as well as wholesale business may be done.

This establishment is well calculated
for a young man about to commence the business, as the stock will be sold low, and the articles being fresh, and of the first quality. Inquire at this office.

Aug. 10-11.

IVORY.

FOR SALE, a handsome lot of IVORY.

suitable for Piano Forte Makers, &c. Apply to WILLIAM RICHARDSON, No. 6 South Third street.

Aug. 10-11.

ADVERTISEMENT.

BULKELEY'S, 149 Chestnut street, have constantly on hand a complete assortment of Castor Oil, Drapery, Hats, etc.

Philadelphia, New York and London fashions.

Also, men's Travelling, Fishing, Forage and dress CAPS,
youths' boys' and children's fancy Caps, ladies' UMBRELLAS, Umbrellas, Stocks, Gloves, &c. &c.

Aug. 10-11.

REMOV.

GILLINGHAM, MITCHELL & CO. have removed to the New Four Story Warehouse, Ninth Second Street, near Market.

Aug. 10-11.</

in covering the arched roof, it was found to contain a partial skeleton, apparently quite entire, and were not a single thing to indicate who or what the personage was whose remains remained. It is extremely probable that, in consequence of desperation, which must have been the quantity of air admitted, have been, after the explosion and other articles connected with the bomb, then destroying the body of the skeleton of any one disappointed by religious zeal. Mr. Gambier, in the frequent opportunity he has had of witnessing the destruction of bodies, after having lain many hours, says, that he has found them invariably lying east by west. In the present instance, there does not appear to have been any difficulty in depositing the bodies; they were conveniently buried upon another, excepting some small stones, which leaves room to suppose that the occupant of the chair, or, which is equally probable, that when William the Conqueror invaded England, the vanquished found a resting place for their bones in this, as in many other places in the neighborhood. It is somewhat singular, that on the discovery of one skeleton it was found on its side in a reclining position.—It may be proper to mention, that the ground upon which the building is about being erected, formed part of the monastery of St. Augustine. Probably it was selected as the burial place of the bodies remains a mystery of no easy solution.—Kentish Chronicle.

Mr. Shelton, the late Coroner for the City of London, recently deceased, was a man of singular habits. Amongst other peculiarities which he possessed in as strong a degree as another Coroner for an adjacent county, was an intense feeling of dislike to give pain by any application for money owing to him. The Government has during the last 30 years been a debtor to him for his services, as he could never bear to make up his accounts. A short time since he was urged to make them up and send them in. They went, with his consent, made up, and only awaiting his inspection; but this he could not bear to do. He turned on his heel, and the account was settled by his executors. In another case, he had performed considerable services to a private trust in the City, which, in consequence, became indebted to him in a considerable amount. He was from time to time urged to send in his bill, but he as often delayed it. When another application was made to him, he said, "Well, if you will give me a check for $500, I will give you a receipt in full." "We must not do that," said the parties, "for we cannot owe you less than $1,000." "I then," said he, "you must settle it with my executors;" and the account yet remains open. He was a bachelor, and he is nevertheless supposed to have died very rich. He was remarked as one of the most independent men in the Corporation. He never asked a favour of his superiors—he never visited any one from the duty of duty to perform for them. The despatch of business by a clerk was regular and able, and the establishment, it is understood, will remain undisturbed—Evening Paper.

The Wandering Minstrel, in the hidden coat, flogging cap, green spectacles, and bangles, made his appearance in this town yesterday, and, as in all other places, he was followed by a juvenile crowd, whilst the attention of persons of all ages and classes was attracted by the novelty of his name and the novelty of his performance. All were struck in the opinion that he was indeed what he seemed;—he brought through the grandeur of his mean habiliments, the gait, the air, the manners of the gentleman were distinguishable. He was noticed by many of the most respectable inhabitants of the town, and has invitations, we are informed, to breakfast and dine with two of them this day. He has taken up his residence at the Castle Inn, and his receipts, during the few hours he appeared in public, were $1,10. From hence, we hear, he is going to Liverpool, and will cross to Swanses, to pursue his peregrinations through the principality. "Who is he?" is a question still involved in doubt—which will be at the end of August, will entitle the public who he is, and what is the result.—North Devon Journal.

REMARKABLE PRESENCE OF MIND.—On Wednesday week the daughter of Mr. Farquharson, Bankend, Sterlingshire, was standing near a bee-hive. The hive suddenly threw off a swarm, and alighted on the young woman's head. It completely covered her hair, face, breast, and shoulders, so that she could neither see nor speak. In the situation she remained without moving, until her father brought a hive, and the bees entered it, without her receiving a single sting. Had she run away, or irritated the insects by striving to drive them, the consequence might have been fatal to her.

DUEL BETWEEN MR. STEELE AND MR. W. S. O'BRIEN.—A meeting took place between these gentlemen, on Tuesday last, in consequence of the publication of some letters in the London papers, relating to the late Clare election, in which the conduct of Mr. O'Brien was reflected on. Shots were exchanged without effect, and the parties proceeded no further.—Mr. O'Gorman Mahon was Mr. Steele's second.

THOMAS WOODIN, Esq., whose marriage with Miss Zouch was recently interrupted at St. George's Church, London, as detailed in a former article, passed through this city on Wednesday last, the ceremony of the nuptials having been performed that morning. Mr. Woodin was very gaily attired, having a white cravat knotted in the lapel of his coat, and a satin ribbon thrown round his neck. Miss Zouch is not very handsome, and seems about forty years of age. The bride and bridegroom proceeded to Dover, after changing horses at the Fountain Inn, and slept at the Ship Hotel; in the morning they embarked on board the steamer for the Continent.—Kentish Gaz.

MISS ZOUCH AND MR. WOODIN.—These parties are not married, notwithstanding all the newspapers in the kingdom, on the authority of a Canterbury paper, have represented the contrary. The gentleman is about to proceed to Bordeaux, and from thence to India, in a state of single blessedness; entertaining hopes, however, that by the time he reaches the Orient, he will be more propitious. He has settled upon Miss Zouch a very large sum of money; sufficient, she states, to remove her from the necessity of appealing to the "good Samaritans" all the rest of her life. She is still residing in town, but not in Regent street, and is under the protection of an uncle and two brothers. It is said that the death of one of her younger brothers, just before the intended ceremony, was the chief cause of her extraordinary conduct at the altar; it is not, however, said what is the cause of the knot still remaining untied.—Evening Paper.

The Select Committee of Management at Drury-lane theatre are reported to have made a considerable reduction in the rent of that establishment to the present lessee. If, after all the efforts made by Mr. Park to produce novelties and exterior attractions, the last effort failed at its close to realize a fair profit to the manager, it is quite clear that the rent is too high, and the proprietors have only exercised a sound discretion in lowering it.—Tatler Courier.

MUSIC IN AMERICA.—Extract of a letter from a musician.—There are four theatres in New York—Park, Bowery, La Fayette, and Shattuck. Here are given comedies and tragedies, grand spectacles, parts of operas, and minor pieces; but no great operas, for the orchestras are extremely bad and incomplete. There are seldom two clarionets, and generally no bassoon. Oboes, trumpets, and drums, are never to be met with. Oboes are almost unknown in this country—in the whole of North America, there is only one player, who lives at Baltimore. Notwithstanding the imperfection of their orchestras, they play the sinfonias of Haydn, and although the want of instruments often forces them to a stand still, they treat the audience as if it were a palace, and play on.

TOBACCO.—The range for Tobacco planting in this country (Wesford) almost exceeds belief.—We have known some acres of potatoes in a very forward state dug up and destroyed for the purpose of substituting this new comest. This is not, however, as much to be wondered at, as we are informed, the latter produces from $100. to $150. per acre; but there is considerable trouble and expense as well as risk attending the cultivation. The number of growers in this County is much greater than it was last year, and there is no doubt it would have been considerably increased if the process of saving the Tobacco had been more generally understood. Before the young plant has taken root, various methods are resorted to in order to protect it from the sun. Some use paper, others oyster shells, but principally white Emmerick sand, flower-pots are used, which are purchased at one pound a thousand. There are about 250 plants to a acre. They are selling at from 1s. to 2s. per hundred. It is necessary to watch the plants to prevent by negligence and. Mr. Gambier, in the frequent opportunity he has had of witnessing the destruction of bodies, after having lain many hours, says, that he has found them invariably lying east by west. In the present instance, there does not appear to have been any difficulty in depositing the bodies; they were conveniently buried upon another, excepting some small stones, which leaves room to suppose that the occupant of the chair, or, which is equally probable, that when William the Conqueror invaded England, the vanquished found a resting place for their bones in this, as in many other places in the neighborhood. It is somewhat singular, that on the discovery of one skeleton it was found on its side in a reclining position.—It may be proper to mention, that the ground upon which the building is about being erected, formed part of the monastery of St. Augustine. Probably it was selected as the burial place of the bodies remains a mystery of no easy solution.—Kentish Chronicle.

ST. JAMES'S CEMETERY.—The Liverpool Mercury, of Friday last, strongly recommends strangers to take "a walk through the interesting, although unfinished cemetery, behind St. James's-walk," adding, that "it will amply repay them for their pains." We were dubious whether the cemetery will repay the dead who may repose in it for their pains. Albion.—We quote thus as the last new job of a witty contemporary. If he goes on much longer, he will have to claim with Mathews, "Oh! that boy—he'll be the death of me!"—Edit. Mercury.

On Saturday last, a fellow dressed in the garb of an oiler, entered the shop of Mr. Watkins, tobacconist, Parker street, and requested change for half-a-crown. The boy in the shop gave him the change, and the fellow then demanded to have five shillings, and as this could not be complied with, he demanded another half-crown back again, and threatened to beat the boy if it were not returned. On receiving it, he followed the boy to the till, in a pretended panic, but this was afterwards discovered, made off with a shilling of it, having only returned eighteen-pence.

A poor aged Frenchwoman, who appeared to be in great distress, was brought before the Lord Mayor. She had been found on the steps of a half door, in the neighborhood of Finsbury square.

Upon being asked what brought her to London, to which she appeared to be an utter stranger, she said she came from her native country to destroy bugs and rats, and other "filthy creatures" in London.

Her Lordship told her that the town had a sufficient number of persons of that trade, and asked her by whose advice she undertook the journey to London!

The poor woman said, with tears dropping from her eyes, that some ladies assured her she would get enough to do in London and Westminster; that in one place there were numbers of bugs, and in the other great quantities of rats.—[laughter.]

The Lord Mayor asked what sort of ladies they were who gave her this intelligence?

"English ladies—Oh, yes, do you English ladies?" said this unhappy victim of a cruel joke.

"Do tell us! she would find more veritas than—[laughter.]

At the Old Bailey, on Thursday, James Butler was convicted of attacking firemen at Chelsea, Downing-street, and robbing them of £100. We give the particulars of the case at the time. The evidence against the prisoner was wholly circumstantial. He was seen within the palings of the premises a few minutes before the fire broke out, and was observed to leap them and run away in great agitation. It was also proved that, a few days previous, a fire box had been sold to the prisoner's sister. A verdict of guilty—death was recorded.

When Gustavus the Third, King of Sweden, was in France, he was frequently solicited to visit Dr. Franklin, who always declined.—One of the French ladies, however, would not let him go, and he was compelled to go. We give the particulars of the case at the time. The evidence against the prisoner was wholly circumstantial. He was seen within the palings of the premises a few minutes before the fire broke out, and was observed to leap them and run away in great agitation. It was also proved that, a few days previous, a fire box had been sold to the prisoner's sister. A verdict of guilty—death was recorded.

THE KING'S THEATRE.—The performance of Tancrède was last night broken off about the middle of the second act, in consequence of the inability of Mademoiselle Malibran, who swooned upon the stage, to proceed with her part. The pain in her arm, occasioned by her recent accident, is yet, we understand, occasionally acute, and concurring with some accidental indisposition, threw her into violent hysterics during the interval between the two acts. At the commencement of the second act she appeared wearing a black gown in a sitting, and processes were apparently difficulty through the curtains with difficulty, and could go no farther. M. Laporte was not, for some time to be found. He at length came forward, and spoke, which was sufficiently obvious. The curtain was again raised, and the Ballet of Massanet followed. The house bore the disappointment with infinite good temper.

A few days since, as a child only two years and a half old, was standing in a market, near Peterborough, eating bread and butter. A swarm came up to it and seized it by the arm, which it broke. The animal then dragged the child under a wagon, about twenty yards distant, and tore off a piece of the cheek and forehead, missing the eye, and would most certainly have destroyed the child had it not been seen and driven off. The wounded infant is now doing well.—York Herald.

We stated in our report of Tuesday's races that his Majesty was not accompanied by the Ladies of the Court—it appeared, indeed, as if his Majesty was determined to cut them altogether, for two elderly ladies of title (the reverend Marchioness of S. and Lady M.) posted themselves right front of the Royal Stand, in the hope of showing off, and thereby attracting every possible ruse to attract the notice of the King; but it was "No go;" the Royal eyes were evidently averted, and the ancient dames retired to their carriages not a little disappointed, venturing their spleen in divers exclamations—"Dear me, we won't see us! what a pity! he might as well have looked!"

At our fair, on Wednesday evening, a farmer, from the neighbourhood of Chard, was apparently easied of 70/- in the following manner:

He went into a public house, where some men were sitting, one of whom threw a roll apparently of Bank notes, on the table, saying, as he had lately come into the possession of a good deal of money, he would willingly lend some of it to his friends; and then began to make inquiries of the farmer about the woolstaplers in his neighbourhood: presented another man joined them, who advised the money-lender to be careful of his cash, as it was a very (well known) highwayman. There were three in the work. The other immediately deposited the roll in his watch pocket, at the same time observing to the farmer that he had better follow after the example.

The farmer hesitated a little, saying it was well secured in the breast-pocket of his coat; how ever, upon being assured that it might very possibly be cut out, if it remained there, he removed it, and allowed his new friends to assist him in placing the property in his box. It was not till some hours after that the knavery was discovered, when the unfortunate dupe, meeting an acquaintance in the fair, particularly cautioned him about "Groves's gang," and told him where he had deposited his money in order to frustrate their tricks: his friend immediately laughed, and challenged him to produce the money, which he did "quite safe;" but, on producing what he conceived to be his 70/-, he was almost frantic on discovering that he had nothing but a parcel of rags! The sharpers have not been discovered.—Tatler Courier.

MUSIC IN AMERICA.—Extract of a letter from a musician.—There are four theatres in New York—Park, Bowery, La Fayette, and Shattuck. Here are given comedies and tragedies, grand spectacles, parts of operas, and minor pieces; but no great operas, for the orchestras are extremely bad and incomplete. There are seldom two clarionets, and generally no bassoon. Oboes, trumpets, and drums, are never to be met with. Oboes are almost unknown in this country—in the whole of North America, there is only one player, who lives at Baltimore. Notwithstanding the imperfection of their orchestras, they play the sinfonias of Haydn, and although the want of instruments often forces them to a stand still, they treat the audience as if it were a palace, and play on.

TOBACCO.—The range for Tobacco planting in this country (Wesford) almost exceeds belief.—

We have known some acres of potatoes in a very forward state dug up and destroyed for the purpose of substituting this new comest. This is not, however, as much to be wondered at, as we are informed, the latter produces from $100. to $150. per acre;

but there is considerable trouble

if it were a palace, and play on. In every operation there is a tremble, which never plays as part, but generally that of the violoncello; and if the performer is skilled enough, he sometimes plays that of the violin. Trembles and bows are best paid; they receive sixteen or seventeen dollars a week, the others have but ten or twelve; the first clarinet has fifteen dollars.

They play every day, except Sunday, commencing at half-past eight, and ending about one o'clock in the morning. A very lucrative thing for the musicians of the theatres is, that over and above their employment, they give lessons on the cymbals and guiter.

By this means it is possible in a short time to make a small capital, but pupils are found for these instruments only.

Good masters receive a dollar per lesson, others eighteen for twenty-five lessons.

Young professors of moderate talents, who elsewhere would hardly make enough to live on, receive six dollars, and when they are making a living, and passing for distinguished artists. The most important requisite for teaching music is to know the English language.—Edas.

[What a blessed thing is a state of ignorance. We thought our orchestras were nearly complete, and had made up our minds to the capability of Monsieur Paradol's orchestra to play the most difficult compositions. We had no idea that the cymbals were cultivated so much in our sister city; the guiter we were aware of as being a fashionable instrument, but the cymbals—spirit of Haydn preserve us from the maddening clang of a solo on the composition platform.—Information is requested touching the location of the Shallow theatre in New York.]

ARTISTS' AMPHITHEATRE.—The Duke of Wellington, the Marquis of Worcester, the Earl of Jersey, and about seventy other distinguished individuals, honoured that theatre with their presence last night. The Duke was soon recognised, though his visage was unperceived, and received, as such a man should be, the shout of acclamation, by the audience. The Duke seemed much pleased with the Duke's achievement on the stage. His Napoleons repeated.

The audience, however, seemed to think the Duke did not worth the purchase of one year's cost.

The Court did not think that the Duke should remain in which disappointment, arising from that course, has involved as many of them.

That theatrical concern is not fit subjects for Courts of Law and Equity, we have the highest living authority in the latter department for saying.—

Lord Eldon, unquestionably the greatest of modern Judges, whenever the concern of a theatre

should be referred to him, he should remain in prison, to be dealt with as the Government should think fit.

Now, I recollect where they ate; I have left them upon the top of the bed in which I slept at the house of Berthe, at Bourneville, and your husband can go with me there to-morrow and pay himself.

This provision was agreed to, and the suspicion was that of the violin. Trembles and bows are best paid; they receive sixteen or seventeen dollars a week, the others have but ten or twelve; the first clarinet has fifteen dollars.

They conversed familiarly on the road, and stopped at several public-houses to take refreshment. When they were within three-quarters of a mile of M. Berthe's house, Dupuy said to his host: "My dear fellow, I don't think it would be quite right for me to take a stranger to sleep at my friend's house, in my opinion, your best play will be to return to St. Valentin the night, and you can call on me in the morning. I shall stay at nine o'clock.

After which we can return together. I shall allow you six francs for your travelling expenses to-day, and six more for to-morrow."

The host, believing all was right, did as he was told; but he never saw his companion again.

The Court did not think that the above facts sufficient to constitute swindling, according to the strict construction of the law. It was, however, of opinion that acts of vagrancy had been committed by the parties, and recommended to pay the costs.

The Court also directed that, at the expiration of the above term, he should remain in prison, to be dealt with as the Government should think fit.

ARTISTS' AMPHITHEATRE.—The Duke of Wellington, the Marquis of Worcester, the Earl of Jersey, and about seventy other distinguished individuals, honoured that theatre with their presence last night. The Duke was soon recognised, though his visage was unperceived, and received, as such a man should be, the shout of acclamation, by the audience. The Duke seemed much pleased with the Duke's achievement on the stage. His Napoleons repeated.

The audience, however, seemed to think the Duke did not worth the purchase of one year's cost.

The Court did not think that the Duke should remain in which disappointment, arising from that course, has involved as many of them.

That theatrical concern is not fit subjects for Courts of Law and Equity, we have the highest living authority in the latter department for saying.—

Lord Eldon, unquestionably the greatest of modern Judges, whenever the concern of a theatre

should be referred to him, he should remain in prison, to be dealt with as the Government should think fit.

In this city—a correspondent, who cannot be accused of attending to trifles, if a man calls John in a crowded street, turns heads are turned to answer. In the list of the Charleston Board of Health, the first five names are Thomas.

A plan is proposed for the establishment, by subscription, in this city, of a "Society for bettering the condition of the poor."

The design is to employ a suitable person to visit their dwellings, and to bestow consolation, advice, &c.

The services of a clergymen, well known for piety and benevolence, may, it is said, be had for about $500 per annum.

The Lansingburgh Gazette says that the story of Lyman Booth's murder, published in that paper some weeks ago, was a hoax. Booth is said, instead of having been murdered, his run away from his creditors, among whom is the person implicated in the account of the murder.

In the Niagara Herald, of the 6th instant, Wm. Proctor cautions the public against trusting his wife, he having married her while he was drunk and insane; and the marriage therefore unlawful.

William Miner has been appointed Clerk of the United States Circuit and District Courts for the District of Ohio, vice William K. Bond, resigned.

The Dry Dock at Charlestown, Mass., is going on with great rapidity is to receive authorizing us to name in the books by taking it up. The arrivals at have been in the Saratoga prove to have holland, of Gal-is supposed to Newburyport or of Maranacoutie, was opened overnment, on ion of all democ-

that, on Wed-
Wm. H. Tracy, Indfall into lock No.

follow went into er of Ninth and of a leaf of sugar, returned in about ing of peace. This master of the shop show to the registry of Cap. May.
He turned and read. Then light-respondent, who desire to travedred street, twenty

In the list of the
the first five names establishment, by

"Son of his sister." The design to visit their consolation, advice, man, well known say, it is said, they are.

says that the published in the a box. Booth's been murdered, he among whom is the ent of the murder of the 6th instant, the public against married her while and the marriage be-appointed Clerk of District Courts

William K. Bond,

town, Mass., is pro-
From 45 to 45,000
out of about 400, more are in the
for laying—it is on the Quincey Buil-Neponset river, and the Navy Yard is their first night at ived in a full house;

us regret that few 75, one of the King of real to be placed in Assembly; no ap-
made by the English;
however, has advad-

in Market Bay
fifteen years ago;
company; whilst silguns was accidentally lodged in the e, and injured it is Dr. Barton deemed

a concert at Halifax, under the patronage
the violinist is taking by their ears.

The Editor of the Beau Brummell is furniture, and the set in England.
Kinder's Journal, that down, the Valley Rail Road,

8. Markley, Ency General of Pen-Eilmaker, Esq. re-

the Elizabethan instance of self-mur-Harrison, who has time past, lost some of his lands as was about 20 years
but a few months
as committed in conwith his wife.

ried in England,
ed to the body only at the book of the d to prove that this can take place to-

Mr. Peter Aymar,
one of his own sons gages, which

Cut the corn from until it is salt, pop-periment the heding, chicken it a little,
the best turtle soup

Canada came under population was but of 1,000,000. Yet a with Ohio, which one above-mentioned and now contains Canada!

Colony of Orkney,
at the Burlingame,
Jolls and Dandemun-

J. MUSGRAVE'S STOCK & EXCHANGE OFFICE, S. E. corner of Chestnut and Third st.

PUBLIC STOCKS.

LOANS.

United States	Par Value	Present Price
Loans, 1st, 10 per cent.	100	102 00
Do. 2d, 10 per cent. Loan of . . . . .	100	104 00
Do. 3d, 10 per cent. Loan of . . . . .	100	106 00
Do. Four and a half per cent. Loans, . . . . .	100	108 00
Do. Three and a half per cent. Loans, . . . . .	100	108 00
Pennsylvania, Five per cent. . . . .	100	105 00
Philadelphia, Five per cent. . . . .	100	115 00
Do. Five per cent. . . . .	100	108 00
Schooner Hill Navigation, Six per cent. . . . .	100	120 00
Union Canal, Six per cent. . . . .	100	108 00
Chesapeake and Delaware, Loan, . . . . .	100	97 00
Mexico, Two per cent. . . . .	100	108 00
Do. Five per cent. . . . .	100	102 00

BANK STOCKS.

United States	100	125 25
North America, . . . . .	400	414 00
Pennsylvania, . . . . .	400	400 00
Philadelphia, . . . . .	40	44 00
Manufacturers and Mechanics, . . . . .	40	53 10
Philadelphia, Mechanics, . . . . .	25	44 40
Baltimore, . . . . .	25	30 00
Northern Liberties, . . . . .	25	44 40
Bethesda, . . . . .	25	30 00
Bethesda, . . . . .	25	37 00
Baltimore, . . . . .	25	44 40
Germantown, . . . . .	25	30 00
London, . . . . .	25	30 00
Trotton, . . . . .	25	30 00

INSURANCE STOCKS.

Pennsylvania, . . . . .	400	424 00
North America, . . . . .	88 33	86 00
Union, . . . . .	10	8 50
Penn., . . . . .	10	8 50
Delaware, . . . . .	10	8 50
Marine, . . . . .	10	8 50
American, . . . . .	10	8 50
Pennsylvania Life Insurance, . . . . .	100	127 00
Pennsylvania Life Assurance, . . . . .	100	92 50

CANAL AND BRIDGE STOCKS.

Union Canal—Old Stock	200	165 00
Union Canal—New Stock	300	215 00
Schoharie Navigation Shares	100	105 00
Lake Erie and Western Navigation	100	120 00
Chesapeake and Delaware Canal	100	120 00
Schoharie Permanent Bridge do.	10	15 00

BILLS OF EXCHANGE.

Bill on London, 60 days, . . . . . 100 30 per cent.

BANK NOTE EXCHANGE.

B. Hampshire Bank, 1-1-2	Dubai, Maryland, 1-1-2
Vermont, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Massachusetts, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Rhode Island, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
New York, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
City Banks, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Country notes, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
New Jersey, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Bank of New England, 1-1-2	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Patterson, 1-1-2	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Morris, 1-1-2	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
All others, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Pennington, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Greenwich, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Brownsville, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Westfield, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
North Carolina, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Cape Fear, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
South Carolina, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Georgia, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Kentucky, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
Tennessee, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .
All others, . . . . .	Richmond and Brandon, . . . . .

LATE FOREIGN ITEM.

Two or three families are on the eve of leaving this town for the United States.—Leicester Journal.

A HANGING SUBJECT.

A police officer, on being asked the difference between hung criminals and hung venison, replied that one was tried it was hung, and the other hung before it was tried.

ARRESTED.

On Thursday evening, Mr. George Green made his 71st ascent (which is the inclemency state of the weather, had been postponed from Monday) from the boating-green of the Golden Eagle, Mile-end-road. He was accompanied by Miss M., a lady residing in Hackney-road.

Mr. Jones, the comedian, at Drury-lane, has refused every lucrative offer by the managers of the Edinburgh, Manchester, and Dublin Theatres, to perform during the recess. He remains, however, all the summer in London, where he gives lessons of elocution to the students of Oxford and Cambridge.

The cabin of the ship Parthenon, Captain Curtis, was broken open on Tuesday night, about 11 o'clock, and a trunk, with several other things, taken away. The trunk was lying at the Middle Pier, Peck-hill, and there was no sign of violence done to it. It was discovered on Wednesday morning, disengaged at a short distance from the Pier, broken open, and rifled of its contents. It contained several articles of wearing apparel, and a pocket book, in which was a note for $100 and Bank bills to the amount of $150. There was also in the trunk $10 in specie.—Journal of Commerce.

Joseph Gill, a white, and Toby Pompfrey, a black, purloined a large amount of specie, in dollars and ducatons, amounting to $7,500, on Tuesday, from board the schooner Homeric, lately arrived from the West Indies, and made off with it. They were apprehended by two police officers of this city, yesterday morning at Sauternes, about fifty miles from New-York, and brought back, with nearly all the money. They were travelling together, and excited suspicion wherever they went. When apprehended the white man confessed at once, and said that a great load was thus taken off his mind; but the black fellow was obstinate for some time, and denied any knowledge of the transaction. It appears that Gill repeated soon after the robbery, and wished his companion to return and deliver it up. They were sent to Bridewell last night for examination. We believe the robbery was committed in Brooklyn, and of course they must be sent over for further trial and punishment.—Morn. Herald.

The cabin of the ship Parthenon, Captain Curtis, was broken open on Tuesday night, about 11 o'clock, and a trunk, with several other things, taken away. The trunk was lying at the Middle Pier, Peck-hill, and there was no sign of violence done to it. It was discovered on Wednesday morning, disengaged at a short distance from the Pier, broken open, and rifled of its contents. It contained several articles of wearing apparel, and a pocket book, in which was a note for $100 and Bank bills to the amount of $150. There was also in the trunk $10 in specie.—Journal of Commerce.

Joseph Gill, a white, and Toby Pompfrey, a black, purloined a large amount of specie, in dollars and ducatons, amounting to $7,500, on Tuesday, from board the schooner Homeric, lately arrived from the West Indies, and made off with it. They were apprehended by two police officers of this city, yesterday morning at Sauternes, about fifty miles from New-York, and brought back, with nearly all the money. They were travelling together, and excited suspicion wherever they went. When apprehended the white man confessed at once, and said that a great load was thus taken off his mind; but the black fellow was obstinate for some time, and denied any knowledge of the transaction. It appears that Gill repeated soon after the robbery, and wished his companion to return and deliver it up. They were sent to Bridewell last night for examination. We believe the robbery was committed in Brooklyn, and of course they must be sent over for further trial and punishment.—Morn. Herald.

An occurrence of a very painful nature has taken place at Canastota, in this county, within the last week. The facts related to us are as follows:—On Tuesday morning the body of a newly born infant was found in the canal basin, which seemed to have been recently thrown in. The coroner was called, who summoned a jury of inquest. Circumstances which came to light during an investigation of three or four days, brought a young woman of that place, who had hitherto sustained a fair and irreproachable character, under suspicion of being mother of the child. She was accordingly called before the jury, and after some time confessed that she was the mother, but declined giving any account of its death. She alleged that she was the victim of a betrayer, who had promised her marriage. The agony of her mind in making the confession, is indescribable, and may only be faintly imagined, by contemplating the mournful catastrophe to which it impelled her. Failing in two attempts to put an end to her life and her sufferings, she at length succeeded in the violence of her friends and relatives, who surrounded her, and suspended her by the neck from one of the posts, and quite dead.—Evening Post.

The Service and Sherman, between Philadelphia and New-York, were engaged in a race, to see which would be the first to reach New-York. The former won, and the latter was beaten.—Evening Post.

At 12 m. on Saturday, June 25, the steamer New-York, bound for Liverpool, left New-York, having on board 1,000 passengers, and 100 crew.

At 1 p.m. on Sunday, June 26, the steamer New-York, bound for Liverpool, having on board 1,000 passengers, and 100 crew.

At 2 p.m. on Monday, June 27, the steamer New-York, bound for Liverpool, having on board 1,000 passengers, and 100 crew.

At 3 p.m. on Tuesday, June 28, the steamer New-York, bound for Liverpool, having on board 1,000 passengers, and 100 crew.

At 4 p.m. on Wednesday, June 29, the steamer New-York, bound for Liverpool, having on board 1,000 passengers, and 100 crew.

At 5 p.m. on Thursday, June 30, the steamer New-York, bound for Liverpool, having on board 1,000 passengers, and 100 crew.

At 6 p.m. on Friday, June 31, the steamer New-York, bound for Liverpool, having on board 1,000 passengers, and 100 crew.

At 7 p.m. on Saturday, July 1, the steamer New-York, bound for Liverpool, having on board 1,000 passengers, and 100 crew.

At 8 p.m. on Sunday, July 2, the steamer New-York, bound for Liverpool, having on board 1,000 passengers, and 100 crew.

At 9 p.m. on Monday, July 3, the steamer New-York, bound for Liverpool, having on board 1,000 passengers, and 100 crew.

At 10 p.m. on Tuesday, July

